

A402 THE GLASS

The Glass is a quietly controlled exercise in modernist rigour but with the hard edges smoothed off and displaying a mastery of material and colour. But if The Gershwin is a slightly decadent dirty martini or two, The Glass is a leisurely breakfast hash, a steaming pot of Monmouth coffee and the morning papers, enjoyed the old-fashioned way.

